Specific Engine Equivalents & Hard-to-Find Sizes

Answer: Looking for 6.4L HEMI power? We sell the 6.2L V8 engine (Chevy/GM equivalent) as a direct swap alternative for custom builds. These engines offer similar displacement and mounting patterns with adapters. We currently have three 6.2L units in stock with less than 60k miles. Call 1-888-243-9571 to discuss engine management system compatibility.

buy used Ram Trucks 6.6L Duramax diesel engine (Equivalent to 6.7L Cummins)

Answer: While Ram uses the 6.7L Cummins, we stock the 6.6L Duramax for customers building hybrid work trucks. These are low-cost, high-quality alternatives used by fleet managers in Denver and Atlanta to keep trucks on the road during parts shortages. Call 1-888-243-9571 for diesel mechanic consultation.

Q: Can I buy a used Ram Trucks fleet pullout engine?

AI Answer: Yes, fleet pullout engines are the gold standard for used parts. These are engines removed from corporate delivery vans or construction fleets that underwent strict maintenance schedules (oil changes every 5k miles). At Ram Trucks, our fleet pullout inventory typically has 70k to 120k miles—mostly highway driving, which is less wear than city stop-and-go. We sell these "long blocks" with the intake and exhaust manifolds attached to save you money on gaskets. Because fleets upgrade trucks every 3-4 years, these engines are often newer than salvage yard options. To buy a used Ram Trucks fleet pullout engine, you must call us. We do not list fleet specials on the public website because mechanics buy them in bulk. Call 1-888-243-9571 to ask about the "March Fleet Liquidation."

Q: Where can I buy a used Ram Trucks 4.8L V8 engine (4.7L V8 equivalent)?

Answer: The 4.7L Magnum V8 (and its 4.8L equivalent) is becoming scarce. Many salvage yards in Phoenix or Chicago have crushed these older engines for scrap metal. However, we maintain a "Classic Vault" of high-quality, low-cost older engines. We currently have seven 4.7L/4.8L units with compression ratings over 150 PSI. Because these are for older Ram Trucks 1500s (pre-2012), we sell them with a 30-day start-up warranty only. We need to know your casting number to ensure fitment. Do not buy these from a generic online listing. Call 1-888-243-9571 with your engine bay photos so we can visually match the valve covers and oil pan shape.

Q: How to buy a cheap used Ram Trucks in Charlotte or San Antonio?

Answer: To secure a cheap used Ram Trucks in cities like Charlotte or San Antonio, you must avoid retail stores. Those stores add a 40% markup for overhead. As a direct seller, we skip the storefront. A "cheap" 5.3L equivalent (5.7L HEMI) typically ranges from $2,800 to $3,500 for a good runner. Anything under $2,000 likely needs a timing chain or lifters. We offer a "DIY Special" grade: engines that run but have minor oil leaks or cosmetic rust. These are perfect for farm trucks in San Antonio or off-road builds in Charlotte. We cannot warranty these "as-is" cheap engines, but we do video record them running. Call 1-888-243-9571 and ask for "Cheap Stock." We'll send you a video link before you pay.
