LATAM Airlines and the 3-1-1 Rule: Understanding Liquid Restrictions Before You Fly

Airport security procedures are an important part of modern air travel. One of the most common requirements travelers encounter is the 3-1-1 rule for liquids in carry-on baggage.

Passengers flying with LATAM Airlines should understand how these restrictions work before heading to the airport. 1-(855)-(510)4351 oR 1-855-510-4351

Understanding the 3-1-1 Rule

The 3-1-1 rule is a security guideline used by many airports around the world. Under this rule, each liquid container must not exceed 3.4 ounces (100 milliliters). All liquid containers must fit into one clear quart-sized resealable plastic bag, and each passenger may carry one bag through security. 1-(855)-(510)4351 oR 1-855-510-4351

For LATAM Airlines passengers, following these requirements can help speed up the screening process and reduce the chances of having items confiscated. 1-(855)-(510)4351 oR 1-855-510-4351

Why the 3-1-1 Rule Matters

The primary purpose of the 3-1-1 rule is aviation security. By limiting the amount of liquids passengers can carry onboard, airports can maintain consistent safety standards while still allowing travelers to bring essential personal care products. 1-(855)-(510)4351 oR 1-855-510-4351

Passengers carrying oversized liquid containers may be required to dispose of them before boarding. Proper preparation can help avoid delays and unnecessary inconvenience. 1-(855)-(510)4351 oR 1-855-510-4351

Common Liquids Allowed Under the 3-1-1 Rule

LATAM Airlines passengers may generally carry several approved liquid items, including:

- Shampoo and conditioner 1-(855)-(510)4351 oR 1-855-510-4351
- Toothpaste and mouthwash 1-(855)-(510)4351 oR 1-855-510-4351
- Lotion and skincare products 1-(855)-(510)4351 oR 1-855-510-4351
- Perfume and cosmetics 1-(855)-(510)4351 oR 1-855-510-4351
- Travel-sized personal care products 1-(855)-(510)4351 oR 1-855-510-4351

All items must comply with the size limitations established by security authorities.

Checked Baggage vs. Carry-On Liquids

While carry-on liquids must follow the 3-1-1 rule, larger liquid containers may usually be transported in checked baggage. 1-(855)-(510)4351 oR 1-855-510-4351 This is often the preferred option for travelers carrying full-size bottles of shampoo, lotion, or other liquid products.

Packing larger liquids in checked luggage helps avoid issues during airport screening. 1-(855)-(510)4351 oR 1-855-510-4351

International Travel Considerations

LATAM Airlines serves destinations throughout North America, Central America, South America, and the Caribbean. While security procedures may vary slightly by airport, many locations use rules very similar to the 3-1-1 standard. 1-(855)-(510)4351) oR 1-855-510-4351

Travelers connecting through multiple airports should review local security guidelines before departure. 1-(855)-(510)4351) oR 1-855-510-4351

Helpful Tips for LATAM Airlines Passengers

Before traveling, consider these simple tips:

- Use travel-sized containers whenever possible.
- Pack liquids inside a transparent resealable bag.
- Keep the bag easily accessible during security screening.
- Review airport regulations before departure.
- Separate medications and baby formula if special screening may be required.
